

The 2022 vintage was marked by various meteorological hazards heralding climate change. Depending on the French region, a severe frost at the beginning of April caused a significant loss of production, fortunately the buds were less developed than in 2021 and Languedoc-Roussillon was spared. From May to October, drought and exceptional heat marked the vintage with three heat waves of over 40° C. The combination of these hazards resulted in a small harvest in the south of France, as in 2021. This hot and dry climate favoured the concentration and maturity of the grapes.
